Words of Wisdom:

Anger

There was a little boy with a bad temper. His father gave him a bag of nails and told him that every time he lost his temper, to hammer a nail in the back fence.

The first day the boy had driven 37 nails into the fence. Then it gradually dwindled down. He discovered it was easier to hold his temper than to drive those nails into the fence.

Finally the day came when the boy didn't lose his temper at all. He told his father about it and the father suggested that the boy now pull out one nail for each day that he was able to hold his temper.

The days passed and the young boy was finally able to tell his father that all the nails were gone. The father took his son by the hand and led him to the fence.

“You have done well, my son, but look at the holes in the fence. The fence will never be the same. When you say things in anger, they leave a scar just like this one. You can put a knife in a man and draw it out, it won't matter how many times you say, 'I'm sorry,' the wound is still there. A verbal wound is as bad as a physical one.”

Responsive Reading: 2 Corinthians 9:6-11 (NIV)

- 6 Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously.
- 7 Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.
- 8 And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.
- 9 As it is written: “They have freely scattered their gifts to the poor; their righteousness endures forever.”
- 10 Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will also supply and increase your store of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness.
- 11 You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.
